FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FULL CLOSURE OF STATE ROUTE 41 FOR HIGHWAY MAINTENANCE

CHOLAME –State Route 41 will be fully closed in both directions from the Highway 46 East/State Route 41 Interchange in Cholame to State Route 33 in Kings County on Tuesday, October 20 from 8 am to 5 pm for highway maintenance work which will include pavement crack sealing, rock slope protection and mowing.

Motorists may use the following detours during this one-day project:

- Motorists headed northbound will continue on Highway 46 East to State Route 33 to Highway 41.
- Motorists headed southbound on Highway 41 will detour to State Route 33 to Highway 46 East.
- Kecks Road at Hwy. 46 East will remain open but is not recommended as a detour.

This highway closure will add 27 miles to the regular commute for a total of a 50 mile detour. Message boards have been activated on State Route 41 in Cholame and Kettleman City to advise motorists of this closure and detours.

Caltrans reminds motorists to move over and slow down while driving through highway construction zones.
